PLENTY OF DUCKS FOR HUNTERS THIS YEAR

Vast Flocks Are Seen Daily Along the Shore. The season for ducks is now open

John M. Crompton, superintendent of fish and game, sald it was "simply wonderful" to see the vast flocks of ducks at the shore. They were to be counted by the thousands and he predicted a good season. He said the condition of the flocks was the justi-fication of the policy observed by the commission in propagation of wild ommission in propagation of wild

There were at present about 25,000 bunters in the state, but only a small percentage engaged in duck hunting. Mr. Crampton said there had been a marked increase in the number of hunters in New Haven and he thought there were fully 200 along the shore today. The duck hunting season will continue until Jan, 16. The season for pheasants will open
